1.2 Scope

1. These General Conditions apply to Mail Items handed over to PostNL for Conveyance. The following category of Mail Items are subject to the sizes, weights and conditions with respect to size, packaging, message and weight as specified in these General Conditions.
 - (i) Consignment of Mixed Mail Items;
 - (ii) Consignment of Small Mail Items;
 - (iii) Consignment of Large Mail Items;
 - (iv) Consignment of Special Mail Items;
 - (v) Consignment of Mail Items combined with an Optional Service.

 Enclosure of small objects of little monetary value to increase the attention value for the Addressee ('gadgets') is permitted subject to conditions. For these conditions see postnl.nl or call PostNL Business Service (on 088 868 6868).*

Article 2

Formation of the Agreement

- 2.1 An Agreement will be formed upon acceptance by PostNL of Mail Items handed over as a Consignment, in accordance with the applicable conditions and instructions, at a Handover Location for Conveyance.
- 2.2 Bulk Mail Consignments may be tendered from Monday to Friday during the opening hours of the Handover Location applicable to Bulk Mail, unless agreed otherwise in writing and except on days generally recognised in the Netherlands as public holidays.
- 2.3 When handing over a Consignment, the Customer must complete and sign an order form. Anyone signing the order form on behalf of the Customer will be deemed to be the Customer's legal representative.
- 2.4 When handing over a Consignment of Direct Mail or Periodicals, an additional sample copy must be included for inspection purposes. Consignments of Direct Mail may be handed over for Conveyance sealed, in which case PostNL may perform random checks on the contents.
- 2.5 PostNL reserves the right to require that an Agreement be recorded in writing. Any agreement contrary to any provision contained in these General Conditions must be recorded in writing.

Article 3

Refusal, calculation of surcharges and suspension of Conveyance

- 3.1 PostNL may refuse Conveyance, suspend the performance of an Agreement formed or charge a reasonable surcharge if it becomes apparent that:
 - a. the Mail Items do not comply with the requirements for franking, weight, size, contents, (sender) address format and/or packaging, as stipulated by PostNL in these General Conditions or otherwise;
 - b. the provision of the service would give rise to a conflict with the law;
 - c. the Conveyance of the Mail Item would cause a danger to persons and/or property;
 - d. the information provided by the Customer pursuant to these General Conditions is incomplete or incorrect;
 - e. there are other valid reasons.
- 3.2 In the event of suspension, the Mail Items and any documentation provided will, where possible, be returned to the Customer or made available for collection by the Customer, thus terminating the Agreement. Any amounts due for the Conveyance will remain payable.
- 3.3 PostNL is entitled to charge a surcharge on tendering Bulk Mail after office hours at the Handover Location, namely the PostNL Business Counters at the sorting centres. PostNL will make every effort to process Bulk Mail tendered after office hours with due observance of the preferred service level, subject to available capacity.
- 3.4 In addition, surcharges may be imposed if:
 - (one or several of the) Mail Items do not comply with the required shape of Article 12.1 up to and including 12.5;
 - the conditions of a Consignment are not complied with;
 - the required identification and/or packaging conditions are not observed;
 - mail is being tendered outside regular office hours;
 - Mail Items are returned, see also Articles 4.4 and 15.4;
 - Mail is tendered contrary to Article 12.6.

Article 4

Performance of the Agreement

- 4.1 The Agreement between the Customer and PostNL does not entitle the Addressee to Delivery.* The Addressee cannot invoke these General Conditions.
- 4.2 Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 15.3, PostNL will make every effort to deliver Mail Items undamaged to the Address stated on the Mail Item in accordance with the agreed service levels. PostNL provides no guarantee however.
- 4.3 Without prejudice to its rights and the obligations of PostNL under the Agreement, PostNL is entitled to contract third parties to perform part or all of the Agreement.
- 4.4 A Mail Item that has been refused by the Addressee will be returned to the Customer provided that the Mail Item is refused upon Delivery. The refusal must take place straight away at or immediately after the Delivery without closed or sealed items being affected or the contents having been examined. Any amounts due for the initial Conveyance will remain payable. PostNL reserves the right to demand a reasonable payment from the Customer for the return of the Mail Item.
- 4.5 If a Mail Item with an Optional Service has not yet been delivered, the Customer, where reasonably possible, may request its return. The Customer must make a reasonable case that he or she handed over the Mail Item to PostNL for Conveyance. PostNL reserves the right to charge for this service. Any amounts due for the Conveyance will remain payable.
- 4.6 Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 8 of these General Conditions, the Agreement may not be dissolved by a Customer who is a not a natural person acting for purposes which are outside his or her trade, business or profession.

 This does not affect the right to assign any claims against PostNL, as provided for in the relevant statutory provisions.*

Article 5

Rates

- 5.1 The rates and other conditions for Conveyance and for the Optional Services referred to in Article 14 of these General Conditions are stated in the latest version of the PostNL Rates brochure. The Rates brochure can be found on the postnl.nl/tarieven website.
- 5.2 The rate payable for Conveyance will initially be determined by the required delivery speed and then by the homogeneity or heterogeneity of the Consignment, the size and weight of the Mail Item as well as the packaging, contents, quantity, (sender) addressing, Handover Location, annual volume and required Optional Services.
- 5.3 Under certain conditions, PostNL may offer Customers who hand over high-volume Consignments on a regular basis a contract allowing them to benefit from lower rates.
- 5.4 The Customer must provide such information as required by these General Conditions or the latest version of the PostNL Rates brochure to determine the applicable rate. PostNL will determine the amount due, where necessary by counting, weighing, measuring or inspecting the Mail Items. PostNL reserves the right to verify the accuracy of information provided by the Customer. The Customer shall allow any such verification and may be asked to allow inspection of the contents of the Mail Items. PostNL may perform random checks on the contents where necessary.
- 5.5 All amounts payable will be subject to the taxes and other charges that PostNL is obliged to impose.

Article 6

Payment

- 6.1 Payment of sums due is to be made upon the formation of the Agreement, except where agreed otherwise in writing, in which case the latest version of the PostNL Conditions of Payment for Services Provided on Account will apply.

Article 7

Protection of personal data

- 7.1 PostNL and contracted third parties uses data recorded within the scope of the Agreement for the purposes of carrying out the Agreement. The data is processed in strict accordance with the law and is registered with the Dutch Data Protection Authority [College Bescherming Persoonsgegevens - www.cbpreweb.nl] under the designation "Postaal vervoer" [postal conveyance].
- 7.2 Except in the cases referred to in Articles 7.1 PostNL will not disclose to third parties any personal data or, in general, any information on Mail Items of a personal nature to which it has access in the course of its business, unless agreed otherwise with the person concerned or unless required to do so by law.
- 7.3 The contents of Mail Items handed over unsealed will only be examined insofar as it is necessary to determine the rate payable for Postal Conveyance or, if the Mail Item is undeliverable, to ascertain the Sender Address or the address of the Addressee.
- 7.4 Undeliverable sealed Mail Items will only be opened for examination, where necessary in order to ascertain the Sender Address or the address of the Addressee, pursuant to an order of the Sub-district Section of the District Court of The Hague. In such cases PostNL must respect the inviolability of the mail as laid down in the Constitution.

Article 8

Liability of PostNL

- 8.1 The liability of PostNL for an imputable failure on its part to meet any of its obligations to the Customer under the Agreement will be limited in accordance with this Article.
- 8.2 A Mail Item to which Article 14 of these General Conditions does not apply will be deemed to be of no value, except where the Customer demonstrates otherwise. Should the Customer demonstrate that a Mail Item, as referred to in the previous sentence, does have a value, the liability of PostNL as referred to in Article 8.1 for a Mail Item to which Article 14 of these General Conditions does not apply will be limited to the value of the Mail Item pursuant to the provisions of Article 8:1103 of the Dutch Civil Code, subject to the proviso that such liability will never exceed the amount provided for in Article 8:1105 of the Dutch Civil Code*, except where agreed otherwise in writing.
- 8.3 Subject to the provisions of Articles 8.1, 8.2 and 8.6 and insofar as the provisions of these General Conditions have been met, the following applies: The maximum liability for Mail Items with an Optional Service (see Article 14 for the relevant provisions) is:
- a. for a Mail Item sent as registered: a maximum of €50 per Mail Item;
 - b. for a Mail Item sent as a Letter with Insured Mail Service: an amount not exceeding that specified by the Customer on conclusion of the Agreement, up to a maximum of €500; PostNL will not be liable for consequential damage.

- 8.4
- 1. PostNL will not be liable for damage caused as a result of circumstances that a judicious carrier could not have been expected to avoid, to the extent that a postal carrier could not have been expected to prevent the consequences of the aforementioned circumstances.
 - 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 9.5, the Customer will not be entitled to compensation if the damage occurs as a result of:
 - a. the nature of or a defect in the contents of the Mail Item;
 - b. inadequate packing;
 - c. any cause attributable to the Customer;
 - d. as a result of war or armed conflict;
 - e. arrest or seizure on the orders of a competent authority;
 - f. incorrect or incomplete Address;
 - g. circumstances of force majeure, including, but not limited to: strikes and floods.
- 8.5 To qualify for compensation, a claim must be submitted to PostNL at the earliest possible opportunity or within a reasonable period after the damage is discovered.
- 8.6 In order to claim compensation within the meaning of Article 8.3 of these General Conditions, the Customer is required to submit supporting documents, such as the original proof of posting, purchase or sales receipt and/or any other legally admissible proof of the value of the contents. PostNL will determine whether the Customer is entitled to the aforementioned compensation on the basis of the supporting documents submitted by the Customer.
- 8.7 A Mail Item to be delivered in the Netherlands will be deemed to be lost if it has not been delivered and has not been located within thirty days of the date of posting. –
- 8.8 A Mail Item that is found after compensation has been paid for its loss will be returned to the Customer or the Addressee upon repayment of the compensation if either party demands its return within a period of thirty days of being notified that the item has been found.
- 8.9 PostNL may not seek to exclude or limit its liability pursuant to the preceding paragraphs of this article where damage occurs as a result of its own acts or omissions, whether PostNL intended to cause the damage or whether it acted recklessly, knowing

 This amount is € 3.40 per kilogram*

Article 9

Customer's liability

- 9.1 The Customer will be liable to PostNL for damage that the Customer's Mail Item causes – due to reasons imputable to the Customer – to persons in the service of PostNL and/or third parties contracted by PostNL, to company equipment of PostNL and/or of third parties contracted by PostNL or to other Mail Items. In the latter case, liability will be limited to the amount of compensation that PostNL is liable to pay to third parties.

Article 10

Applicable law and the competent court

- 10.1 All Agreements will be governed by Dutch law.
- 10.2 Disputes involving financial sums that exceed the maximum monetary amounts for the jurisdiction of the Sub-district Section of the District Court will be heard in the first instance by the competent court in The Hague.

Article 11

Lapse of time

- 11.1 All claims arising from an Agreement will lapse one year from the day after the day on which the Consignment was handed over.
- 11.2 A written demand for performance or a written claim for compensation will preclude any lapse of time.

Article 12

Shape, packaging, addressing, size, weight, contents and other handover conditions

Postal Conveyance is possible if the Mail Items meet the provisions of these General Conditions. Additional conditions apply to Mail Items sent using an Optional Service. Additional Conditions apply to consignments of 2500 items or more, see 12.6 of this Article. PostNL reserves the right to select certain products whereas a pre-alert by the customer is required.

12.1 Shape

Mail Items must have a rectangular shape. In addition postcards without envelopes must have a flat surface.

12.2 Packaging

1. The packaging of the Mail Items must in any event meet the following requirements:
 - a. the seal or closure of the Postal Item must be appropriate for the contents of the Postal Item.
 - b. The packaging for the Mail Item must be of sufficient quality, safe and sturdy and must be appropriate to the weight and the extent of fragility of the contents.
 - c. The packaging should be of a nature such that it does not cause the loss of or damage to the contents, damage to other Mail Items or other items, or injury to employees of PostNL (and/or third parties).
 - d. The packaging must be such that there is no possibility of other Mail Items becoming inadvertently inserted into the Mail Item.
 - e. If an envelope opens on the side, this opening must be used such that it is located at the left or upper side of the address.
2. In the case of Small and Large Mail Items both the contents and packaging must be made of paper. Small and Large Mail Items may only consist of cards, selfmailers or envelopes.
3. Mail Items in card form must be made of sufficiently strong card so that they can be sent without packaging.

12.3 Address requirements

1. All Mail Items must bear the name of the Addressee followed by the full postal Address, either stated directly on the Mail Item or on a label affixed to it. The full Address must be stated on Direct Mail.
2. The full address of the Customer/Sender must appear on all Mail Items in the upper left-hand corner of the side bearing the destination address or may be printed on the back of the envelope. This should only be an address in the Netherlands.
3. In order to consider multiple Mail Items as one single Consignment, the same Sender Address must be stated on these Mail Items. This should only be an address in the Netherlands.

12.4 Dimensions, weight

1. Minimum dimensions: Mail Items may not be smaller than 14 cm long and 9 cm wide.
2. Maximum dimensions:
 1. The maximum size for a Mail Item is 38 x 26.5 x 3.2cm.
 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 of this article, a Small Mail Item may not be larger than 22.9 x 16.2 x 0.5 cm.
 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 of this article, a Large Mail Item may not be larger than 32.4 x 22.9 x 1.0 cm.
3. Maximum weight:

1. The maximum weight of a Mail Item is 2 kg.
2. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Article, a Small Mail Item may not be heavier than 50 grams.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 of this article, a Large Mail Item may not be heavier than 350 grams.

12.5 Content

1. Prohibited contents: Live animals may not be sent by post. In addition, all substances referred to in the Carriage of Dangerous Substances Act* [Wet Vervoer Gevaarlijke Stoffen] are also excluded from Postal Conveyance.
2. PostNL does not provide special handling for fragile goods (e.g. consumer electronics, glass and ceramics, etc.).
3. Mail items containing cash, bank notes, negotiable instruments of any nature, (traveller) cheques, precious metals, precious stones or other valuables can only be sent as a Mail Item in a Sealbag using the declaration of value/insured conveyance service.

12.6 Conditions for Designing of Mail Items

1. Consignments of Bulk Mail Items from 2500 Mail Items onwards are meticulously subjected to and verified according to the Designing of Mail Items Conditions [Vormgeven van poststukken] and PostNL can take suitable measures.

12.7 Handover of Mail Items

1. For every Consignment apply specific handover conditions for the handover of the Consignment. These conditions are presented in the brochure 'Conditions for handing over Bulkmail'.
2. If a Consignment is tendered contrary to the handover conditions PostNL can:
 - a. subject the Consignment to a rate according to a Product with which the Consignment does comply in terms of handover conditions;
 - b. impose a surcharge on each Mail Item in the Consignment;
 - c. hold the Consignment

Article 13

Franking

13.1 General

PostNL will determine in which cases, in what way and at what time markings can be used to show that sums payable for Postal Conveyance have been paid. The Customer must observe this and cooperate with its performance. Specific information on franking can be obtained from postnl.nl, from the Handover Locations or by calling PostNL Business Service on 088 868 6868.

13.2 Other provisions

1. PostNL reserves the right to place markings on any Mail Items handed over for Postal Conveyance if required for sorting and/or Delivery purposes.
2. PostNL will not convey any Mail Items bearing franking marks or labels on the address side other than those issued or supplied by PostNL. The use of stickers solely for the purpose of specifying the Addressee or the Customer is permitted however. Mail Items that are part of a Consignment are franked with the standard postage paid indication 'PostNL Port betaald'.
3. Similarly, PostNL will not convey Mail Items bearing franking marks issued by PostNL on the address side that have been treated or processed in such a way that they cannot be cancelled in the normal way.
4. Notwithstanding paragraph 2 of this Article, when franking Mail Items using a franking machine, franking marks will be deemed valid if produced by a franking machine for which there is a written franking agreement between the user and PostNL and only if the user has complied with the terms agreed for the franking machine.
5. PostNL will not convey any Mail Items bearing stamps, stamping marks or other marks, or imitations of marks which, because of their similarity, may be confused with stamps or marks issued or used by PostNL.

Article 14

Optional services

14.1 Registered mail

1. At the request of the Customer, Mail Items may be conveyed with an Optional Service. The rates and surcharges for the conveyance of Mail Items with Optional Services are specified in the (latest version of the) Rates brochure.
2. If a registered Mail Item is lost, damaged or delayed, or if all or a part of the contents are missing, the Customer may claim compensation for the actual loss or damage, including any consequential damage, to a maximum amount of €50.
3. The name and address of the Addressee and the Customer must be stated fully, clearly and not in pencil on each Mail Item. Registered Mail Items will be handed to the Addressee (see also Article 15.2) or, if undeliverable, returned to the Customer, in exchange for a signed receipt (signature of acceptance).
4. The Customer will be provided with a proof of posting receipt for Mail Items sent using Optional Services.

14.2 Registered with declaration of value/insured conveyance (Insured Mail Service)

1. Subject to the applicable weight limit, the value can be declared of sealed, registered Mail Items (see Article 14.1), which form a Consignment, up to the amount of the actual value at large in the market of the goods or securities enclosed. The value of the enclosed goods or securities must not exceed the declared value, subject to a maximum of €500 per Letterbox Item. The Customer must pack, address, frank and seal* the Bulk Mail Item in such a way that the contents of the Mail Item cannot be removed without leaving external traces. The Customer must use a Sealbag® to send Mail Items containing cash, negotiable instruments, precious metals, precious stones, pearls, objects or documents that have a value as an object of art or as a collector's item, or any other valuables. The Sealbag® is available at all Handover Locations.
2. In addition to the provisions of Article 14.1.2, if a Mail Item sent as registered with declaration of value/insured conveyance is lost, damaged or delayed, or if all or a part of the contents are missing, the Customer may claim compensation for the material damage of the Mail Item, up to the declared value within the meaning of Article 8.3 of these General Conditions.
3. If a Mail Item sent as "registered with declaration of value/insured conveyance" containing cash, negotiable instruments, precious metals, precious stones, pearls, objects or documents that have a value as an object of art or as a collector's item, or any other valuables is lost, damaged or delayed, or all or part of the contents are missing, the Customer may only claim compensation for the damage or loss of the contents of the Mail Item if a Sealbag® was used. In all other cases compensation for loss or damage will not exceed €50 within the meaning of Article 8 of these General Conditions.
4. A Transport Document will be drawn up for the Postal Conveyance of registered Mail Items with declaration of value/insured conveyance. PostNL does not make the Collection Service available for Mail Items with declaration of value/insured conveyance.

14.3 Signature on delivery

1. A signature on delivery is part of the Optional Service for Mail Items sent with an Optional Service within the Netherlands. The signature on paper or formed electronically by signing the handheld computer serves as the proof of Delivery.
2. In the event that more than one Postal Item sent using an Optional Service is delivered to an Addressee at the same time, the Addressee will only be required to sign once (1 'Signature on Delivery') for all Postal Items received at that time. In that case the signature on delivery will then be duplicated electronically by PostNL as proof of Delivery. The Customer agrees to this in advance.

* Further information about the way in which Mail Items with declaration of value must be packed, addressed, franked and sealed can be obtained from PostNL Business Service (088 868 6868) and from any Handover Location.

Article 15

Delivery

15.1 General

1. Except where otherwise agreed in writing, Mail Items will be delivered to Addressees from Tuesday to Saturday, except on generally recognised public holidays, unless this cannot reasonably be expected of PostNL. Notwithstanding what is stated above, Mail Items sent using Optional Services, as referred to in Article 14 of these General Conditions, can also be delivered on Mondays.
2. Mail Items will generally be delivered by being deposited through the Letterbox, which is also deemed to include the letter slot, at the Address specified on the Mail Item.

15.2 Rules for the Delivery of Mail Items sent using an Optional Service

1. Mail Items requiring a signature on receipt will be delivered to the Addressee, his or her authorised representative or an adult member of the same household.* The person who signs for receipt may be required to produce proof of identification.
2. If a Mail Item as referred to above is not delivered at the Address of the Addressee, it will be handed over only if the person who signs for it can show that they are the person lawfully entitled to it.
3. A Mail Item sent using an Optional Service will be handed over at the Address of the Addressee. In flats where there is an intercom but no lift, the Addressee may be asked to take receipt of such Postal Items downstairs.
4. If the Mail Item is addressed to a PO Box, a written note will be placed in the PO Box indicating the arrival of the Mail Item.
5. If there is no answer at the Address stated on the Mail Item when the Delivery attempt for Mail Items sent using an Optional Service is made, a written note will be left indicating how and when the addressee may collect the Mail Item.

15.3 Rules for Delivery in special cases

1. PostNL will only deliver Mail Items where Letterboxes for the delivery of Mail Items to their respective Addressees comply with the rules governing place, size, etc. laid down in laws and regulations. If there is no Letterbox at the specified Address, or if this does not meet the requirements set for this, Mail Items intended to be delivered to that Letterbox will be deemed to be undeliverable after PostNL has instructed the Addressee to install a Letterbox which satisfies the requirements and if the Addressee has not done so within a period of one month (three months in new cases). PostNL may immediately treat Mail Items deliverable through a Letterbox as undeliverable if the Addressee causes their Letterbox to be removed or takes measures or causes measures to be taken that result in the Letterbox no longer satisfying the requirements or not being accessible to PostNL.
2. Mail Items intended for Addressees staying in recreational areas such as holiday villages, allotment gardens, campsites, marinas etc. (i.e. places not intended for permanent occupation) will not be delivered “to the door” but will be deposited in the boxes of a letterbox unit or in a similar facility or handed over to the manager of the complex.
3. Mail Items intended for Addressees in nursing homes, retirement homes, barracks, army camps and other premises and complexes where a number of Addressees are staying will be delivered to the communal letterbox or handed to a person designated for the purpose by the parties concerned. Where a Postal Item requiring a signature on delivery is to be delivered, or if a Postal Item is not suitable to be put through a Letterbox, including a letter slot, the procedure to be followed will be decided by agreement in each individual case.
4. Mail Items intended for bankrupts or for natural persons whose assets are controlled by an administrator under the Insolvency Act (Faillissementswet) will be delivered in accordance with the rules laid down for that purpose in the Insolvency Act. Unclearly addressed Mail Items that PostNL may reasonably assume are intended for a bankrupt or for a natural person whose assets are controlled by an administrator under the Insolvency Act will be treated as such.
5. Mail Items addressed to a deceased person will be delivered to the Address stated on the Mail Item in question, unless the heirs or executor or executrix of the estate have requested, by means of registering for the forwarding service for mail addressed to deceased persons [‘Nabestaandenservice’], that such mail be delivered to an alternative Address. In such cases, Mail Items requiring a signature on delivery will be handed over to a person authorised by all the heirs or to the executor or executrix of the estate.

6. Mail Items addressed to a natural person or a legal entity that has concluded a contract with PostNL for the change-of-address service, holding service or forwarding service will be delivered to the specified Address for the period agreed with the Addressee.

15.4 Undeliverable mail

1. If a Mail Item is undeliverable, it will as a rule be returned to the Customer with a note stating why it is undeliverable. PostNL reserves the right to demand a reasonable payment from the Customer for the return of the Mail Item. The Mail Item will be returned immediately if it is refused by the Addressee, if the address is incorrect or incomplete, if conditions are such that Delivery in the Letterbox of the Addressee is impossible or if there is no Letterbox that satisfies the requirements. If the Mail Item must be handed to the Addressee and he or she is not at home, a note will be left and the Mail Item will be retained for the Addressee for three weeks at the Handover Location specified in the note. After this period, the Mail Item will be returned to the Customer if possible.
2. Undeliverable Mail Items that cannot be returned to the Customer (including when refused by the Customer) will be destroyed, with the exception of Mail Items deemed to be of value to the Customer or Addressee. In that case the Mail Items will be retained for one year, after which time they will pass to PostNL. Any monies, valuables, etc. found in such Mail Items will be retained for a further twenty-four months, after which time they will pass to PostNL. Undeliverable Mail Items containing perishable goods (such as fresh food items) will be destroyed immediately.

 Boarding house or hotel guests, members of staff, landlords, landlords and hoteliers are not deemed to be members of the same household.*
